Behind the aura of wealth and sophistication surrounding Jennifer is an air of mystique, intricately linked to her beautiful and graceful pet, a rescued greyhound named David. David's near-human nature leaves its mark on all — from his loving mistress to hostile housekeeper. Do Jennifer and Reverend Golightly have an answer to the startling and thought-provoking enigma that is David?

Praise for 'Follow Me, David!'...

“This serious story of love and loyalty, which is also at times quite humorous, should be on every reader's list,” -Louise Montclair's Book Review, syndicated, NY newspapers.

“The story is richly inventive, the writing is smooth and unhurried, and this underlines the strength of the narrative and characterization. Almost incidentally, it makes some valid points about our own relationship with, and interdependence upon, the animal kingdom...”

Follow Me, David! is a real tour de force to achieve the essential suspense of disbelief within a particular world of the author's creation; and Russell succeeds in this—an original and highly individual book.”

-Mark Sykes, editor of Athena and literary critic

“We at Grateful Greyhounds would like to congratulate you. The adventures of David are very heart warming and a definite hit with all of our adoptive greyhound parents.”

-Jane Pantaleo, Grateful Greyhounds Inc., Oakdale, NY
